

An Afternoon Experiencing African, Indian and Japanese Cultural Fusion

12th Annual Benefit for Schools of Africa

Saturday, May 3, 2014, 2pm–5pm at 13525 Campus Drive, Oakland, (510) 969-8275

Join us with your friends and family to enjoy African music, Indian dance, Japanese tea ceremony, and ethnic food and drinks.

Women's Federation for World Peace, Northern California, is committed to buy a generator for the Sun of Mozambique Schools, two computers for JAMOO (a women's vocational training school) in Senegal and 10 sets of desks and chairs for Sunac Elementary School in Guinea Bissau. A part of proceeds is also donated to local Non-Profit Organizations that work for children and people in need.

Tickets:

Prepaid

Adults: $20 ($15 donation included)
 Couples: $35 ($25 donation included)
 Youth (11–17 years): $5
 Child (4–10 years): $3

At the Door

Adults: $25
 Couples: $45
 Youth (11–17 years): $8
 Child (4–10 years): $5

- Silent Auction (2:00 – 4:50 pm)
- Girls' Indian Dance (2:30 pm)
- African Dance & Drumming (3:00 pm)
- A Story about Africa (3:30 pm)
- Refreshments (4:00 – 5:00 pm)
- Japanese Tea Ceremony : (4:00 – 5:00 pm)
- Children's Corner (African dance/drum, Origami) (2:00 – 5:00 pm)
- Raffle Prizes at Bay Area Family Church

Organized by:

Women's Federation for World Peace—Northern California, Schools of Africa Project Committee

Contact Tomiko Nojima for more info: tomikonojima@gmail.com • (925) 736-3321

